

Dear Hiring Team,

I am writing to express my interest in the [position] at [company]. With my education and a track record of being a hard worker and quick learner, I am confident in my ability to excel in this role and contribute to the success of your team.

During my time studying at the University of Louisville, I have acquired valuable skills which align well with the qualifications and responsibilities outlined in your job description and be well-equipped to handle the tasks required in the [position].

I am particularly excited about the opportunity to work with your esteemed clients and contribute to maintaining workstation operations at the highest level of customer satisfaction. I am a proactive problem-solver with excellent communication skills, both written and verbal, and I thrive in collaborative team environments while also being able to work independently when needed.

Furthermore, I am a continual learner who values ongoing development opportunities, making [company]'s commitment to fostering growth particularly appealing to me. I am eager to leverage my skills and expertise to add value to your team while furthering my professional growth within a virtue-centered work environment.

I am enthusiastic about the prospect of contributing to [company]'s success and would welcome the opportunity to discuss how my background, skills, and enthusiasm align with the needs of your team. Thank you for considering my application. I look forward to the possibility of contributing to the continued success of [company].

Warm regards,

Maya Harden
